

An Act relating to schools; prohibiting certain clauses or requirements relating to grievance proceeding in negotiated agreements; allowing individual employees to request certain representatives be present at grievance proceedings; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.