

An Act relating to schools; amending 70 O.S. 24-101.3, which relates to out-of-school student suspensions; modifying circumstances under which a school district may provide certain education plans; deleting requirement of art as a core unit; providing for certain grades when appropriate; requiring removal of disruptive students from the classroom under certain circumstances; amending 70 O.S. 2001, Section 18-107, which relates to school finance; specifying inclusion of certain students suspended out-of-school in average daily membership; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.