

An Act relating to insurance; defining term; allowing individual to continue with certain primary care physician under certain conditions; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.