

An Act relating to public health and safety; defining terms; prohibiting any physician to perform an execution (abortion) without obtaining a death warrant; providing procedures; requiring appointment of guardian ad litem; authorizing jury trial; requiring written and specific factual findings and legal conclusions; providing certain time periods; providing for appeals; prohibiting certain filing fees; making certain actions unlawful; providing penalty; authorizing revocation of license to practice; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.