

An Act relating to insurance; creating the Oklahoma Subsidence Insurance Act; providing short title; stating purpose; defining terms; requiring that certain insurance coverage be offered; providing exception; providing that subsequent offers need not be made if previous offers were waived; authorizing certain additional coverage; authorizing the insurer to refuse coverage in certain circumstances; providing for right of subrogation; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.