

An Act relating to municipal utilities; prohibiting a municipality or substate planning district from selling Internet access service; allowing for the performance of certain contracts; providing definitions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.