

An Act relating to state government; prohibiting contracts for certain computer software unless the source code is provided; requiring certain documentation; directing the State Purchasing Director to provide advice and assistance; providing definitions; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.