

An Act relating to public finance; prohibiting voting on legislative measures for purposes of final passage during certain legislative sessions based upon actuarial impact upon public retirement systems; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.