

An Act relating to damages; providing for noneconomic damages for professional negligence by health care providers; limiting amount of recovery with exception; providing for several liability for health care providers, with exceptions; authorizing periodic payments for future damages in actions against health care providers and providing procedures therefor; limiting certain attorney fees; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.