

An Act relating to schools; prohibiting the closing of certain school sites without approval of the electors; restricting certain actions by the board of education; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.