

An Act relating to criminal procedure; enacting the Workplace and Employee Protection Act; providing short title; authorizing the exercise of certain rights; prohibiting the diminishing of certain rights; stating purpose; stating intent; defining terms; authorizing certain person to seek relief under certain circumstances; authorizing the filing of petitions for certain temporary restraining orders; providing for a temporary restraining order; providing for service on the defendant; providing for scheduling of the hearing; providing for certain service; requiring any temporary restraining order issues be for fixed period of time; providing for distribution of copies; requiring Administrative Office of the Courts to establish a uniform petition for certain temporary restraining orders and injunctions; specifying certain relief concerning business premises and duties; requiring statewide and nationwide validity for certain orders; stating legislative intent concerning foreign protective orders; providing for validity of foreign protective orders except under certain circumstances; providing immunity for peace officers enforcing foreign protective orders; providing for affirmative defense for employing entity for certain purposes; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.