

An Act relating to torts; amending 76 O.S. 2001, Section 5A, which relates to automated external defibrillators; providing immunity for certain physicians using automated external defibrillator; providing exception; defining term; and providing an effective date.