

An Act relating to insurance; providing for approval of certain prescriptions within certain time period; providing conditions for approval; providing for fine if approval not given within certain time; providing for enforcement; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.