

An Act relating to the Commission on Consumer Credit; requiring the Commission to budget all funds in specified categories and amounts; providing for duties and compensation of employees; limiting the salary of the Director; providing budgetary limitations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.