

An Act relating to the Insurance Department; requiring certain funds to be budgeted in certain categories and amounts; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.