

An Act relating to torts; amending 76 O.S 2001, Section 31, which relates to immunity from civil liability for volunteers; modifying definition; adding definitions; requiring certain reports by health care providers; requiring establishment of quality assurance program; requiring the State Department of Health to submit certain annual reports; and providing an effective date.