

An Act relating to the healing arts; exempting health care providers from civil liability under certain circumstances; defining terms; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.