

An Act relating to mental health; requiring reimbursement by the Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services to counties under certain circumstances; providing for use of funds; restricting payment of fees; limiting liability for costs; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.