

An Act relating to schools; stating legislative intent that remedial course be provided by two-year colleges; requiring comprehensive and regional universities to contract with two-year colleges for remedial course; stating how remedial courses may be provided; providing for tuition for remedial courses; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.