

An Act relating to state government; requiring the Legislature to provide coverage of certain activities over the Internet; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.