

An Act relating to professions and occupations; requiring physicians using ultrasound equipment for certain procedures to inform a pregnant woman of her right to view images; providing procedures; providing for records; providing for disciplinary actions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.