

An Act relating to state government; prohibiting use of state monies to pay certain organization dues; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.