

An Act relating to state government; creating the Health Savings Account Act; providing for noncodification; and providing an effective date.