

An Act relating to revenue and taxation; creating the Health Savings Account Act; defining terms; determining applicability of act; allowing for contributions into account; limiting amount of contributions; exempting contributions and interest from taxation; providing for distribution of funds; limiting use of funds in account; allowing for withdrawals from account under certain conditions; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.