

An Act relating to damages; providing that liability among joint tortfeasors shall be several in certain circumstances; providing that in certain circumstances liability among joint torfeasors is joint and several; providing that provision applies to actions accruing on or after a certain date; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.