

An Act relating to public health and safety; creating definition for contraception; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.