

An Act relating to schools; prohibiting membership in certain organizations which have oversight over interscholastic activities and contest; providing for the State Department of Education to exercise oversight of interscholastic activities of public schools in certain circumstances; providing for codification; providing an effective date and declaring an emergency.