

An Act relating to cities and towns; creating Municipal Government Workshop Board; providing terms; requiring members of a municipal governing body to attend a certain workshop; providing for curriculum, registration fees, and locations for such workshops; providing exception for attendance; requiring certain notification; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.