

An Act relating to public lands; making capital gains on certain investments interest and income for purposes of calculating distributions; allowing the Commissioners of the Land Office to annually distribute a certain portion of capital gains; providing for codification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.