

An Act relating to oil and gas; requiring oil and gas leases to automatically terminate after a certain period under certain circumstance; prohibiting automatic renewal terms in oil and gas leases; requiring new leases; limiting application of law to oil and gas leases entered into after a certain date; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.