

A Concurrent Resolution memorializing the President of the United States and the Congress not to take military action against Iraq without authorization from the United Nations; and directing distribution.