

A Concurrent Resolution commending veterans for their dedicated military service; respectfully memorializing the President, Vice President and Congress to continue to provide veterans with certain program services and benefits; and directing distribution.