

An Act relating to torts; amending 76 O.S. 2001, Section 5A, which relates to immunity from civil liability for medical care or treatment by use of automated external defibrillator; modifying certain qualifications; providing certain immunity to course directors and trainers; providing certain immunity to prescribing physicians under certain circumstances; providing certain duties of entities that own, lease, possess, or otherwise control an automated external defibrillator; adding certain definitions; and providing an effective date.