

An Act relating to state government; requiring the State Purchasing Director to enter into negotiations for the lease-purchase of certain real property; and providing for noncodification.