

An Act relating to public finance; requiring approval prior to allocation of certain tax credits; specifying requirements for approval related to certain local government entities; requiring additional approval by certain public official; requiring documentation of certain process; amending 27 O.S. 2001, Section 16, which relates to compensation for property taken by eminent domain; providing for computation of value based upon existence of certain factors; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.