

A Concurrent Resolution recognizing the importance of properly treating phenylketonuria; urging health insurance coverage for certain medical foods and food products; and directing distribution.