

An Act relating to technology; amending 15 O.S. 2001, Sections 776.1 and 776.4, which relate to fraudulent electronic mail; making it unlawful to send certain electronic mail messages without certain information in the subject line; requiring certain additional information in certain messages for adults; adding certain definitions; and providing an effective date.