

An Act relating to counties and county officers; authorizing filing for certain documents; allowing county clerks to accept certain payments; providing method for certain calculation for service charge; authorizing county clerks to enter into certain contracts; authorizing county clerks to establish certain fee accounts; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.