

An Act relating to the Office of the Attorney General; requiring budgeting of funds in certain categories and amounts; providing for duties and compensation of employees; providing budgetary limitations; making appropriations nonfiscal; providing lapse dates; and providing an effective date.