

An Act relating to torts; providing for immunity from liability for volunteer medical professionals under certain circumstances; defining term; limiting immunity under certain circumstances; stating applicability of act; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.