

An Act relating to the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System; requiring certain comparative study and public safety benefit design study; stating scope of study; providing for recommendations and report; setting date for distribution; providing for noncodification; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.