

An Act relating to civil and criminal information; making certain findings; directing implementation of uniform data network system for certain purpose; naming certain system; requiring certain funding each fiscal year; directing the Oklahoma Criminal Justice Resource Center and the Administrative Director of the Courts to design certain system; designating the Supreme Court to administer certain system; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.