

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; creating the offense of commercial bribery; specifying penalty; amending 21 O.S. 2001, Section 1501, which relates to securing credit fraudulently; making certain false statements concerning the value of certain property a crime; prohibiting false or fraudulent statements to financial institutions to obtain certain information; prohibiting false or fraudulent documents or documents without lawful authority to obtain certain information or to commit a crime; stating penalty; providing for restitution; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.