

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; prohibiting false or fraudulent statements to financial institutions to obtain certain information; prohibiting false or fraudulent documents or documents without lawful authority to obtain certain information or to commit a crime; stating penalty; providing for restitution; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.