

An Act relating to roads, bridges and ferries; requiring the Department of Transportation to designate a portion of available toll credits for certain purpose; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.