

An Act relating to public health and safety; amending 63 O.S., Section 948, which relates to medicolegal investigations; authorizing performance of drug screens on certain specimens under certain circumstances; specifying applicability of authorization; limiting certain drug screens; establishing certain fee by rule; providing for deposit of certain fee; authorizing establishment of certain fee schedule; stating when certain fee schedules may be established; specifying procedure to establish certain fee schedules; specifying ranges of certain fees; providing for determination of fees; stating parameters upon which fees shall be based; requiring continuation of certain training and education for certain personnel; allowing Board to exempt by rule certain agencies or classes of individuals for certain purposes; continuing statutory fees currently in effect until certain time; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.