

An Act relating to schools; requiring the State Board of Education to establish limits on access to certain vending machines in certain schools; requiring the State Board of Education to adopt rules; providing for codification; and providing an effective date.