

An Act relating to state government; amending 74 O.S. 2001, Section 90.1, which relates to postage; defining certain term; removing superfluous language; clarifying application of law; providing an exception to limitation on purchasing postage stamps for certain agencies; providing for application and approval; providing for method of accountability; defining terms; and providing an effective date.