

An Act relating to public health and safety; making unlawful certain specified acts related to issuance of birth, death or stillbirth certificates; providing that violation of such provision shall constitute a felony; providing penalties; stating exception; providing for codification; and declaring an emergency.