

An Act relating to public health and safety; requiring certain person to be charged with child abuse; requiring child to be taken into protective custody under certain circumstances; and declaring an emergency.